EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Codeable   2013 - PRESENT
Front-End Developer

- Codeable is a freelancing platform. While it specializes in WordPress, it also handles other technologies. I have worked here mostly with WordPress-related projects, including E-Commerce sites built with plugins like WooCommerce and custom interfaces built in React.

Elegant Themes   2012 - Present

WordPress Developer and Tech Support

- I have worked on the Divi theme that contains a Page Builder created in React. The page builder helps users to create websites without having coding skills. It is a drag-and-drop interface with multiple integrated options that can create almost all types of websites. The product is being used by over 800.000 people.
